

Title: Leading An Effective Deacons' Meeting

Speaker: Pastor Tim Rabon

Introduction: _____

1. Priorities

- A. There must be a commitment to the Lord _____ in a deacon's personal walk with Him.
- B. There must be a commitment to the _____ of the local church.
- C. There must be a commitment to the _____ of the pastor.
- D. There must be a commitment to _____ all meetings.
- E. There must be a commitment to serve and _____ for the congregation.
- F. There must be a commitment to _____.

Title: Leading An Effective Deacons' Meeting

Speaker: Pastor Tim Rabon

Introduction: _____

1. Priorities

- A. There must be a commitment to the Lord _____ in a deacon's personal walk with Him.
- B. There must be a commitment to the _____ of the local church.
- C. There must be a commitment to the _____ of the pastor.
- D. There must be a commitment to _____ all meetings.
- E. There must be a commitment to serve and _____ for the congregation.
- F. There must be a commitment to _____.

2. Preparation

- A. Have a prepared _____ for each meeting.
- B. Some items will be _____ covered.
- C. Some items will be _____.

3. Prayer

- A. _____ open with a time of challenge and prayer.
- B. This allows for all the men to be _____ of personal needs throughout the congregation.
- C. This is a time of _____ building.

4. Purpose

- A. A deacon _____ will help to facilitate ministry among the congregation.
- B. Every deacon must understand that his primary responsibility is to be a _____ to the Lord, the pastor, and the church body.

5. Program

- A. It is best to meet at the _____ time and place each month.
- B. It should be a time of _____, discussion, and encouragement.
- C. Seek to build a _____ among the deacons as you move forward in ministry.

Conclusion: _____

2. Preparation

- A. Have a prepared _____ for each meeting.
- B. Some items will be _____ covered.
- C. Some items will be _____.

3. Prayer

- A. _____ open with a time of challenge and prayer.
- B. This allows for all the men to be _____ of personal needs throughout the congregation.
- C. This is a time of _____ building.

4. Purpose

- A. A deacon _____ will help to facilitate ministry among the congregation.
- B. Every deacon must understand that his primary responsibility is to be a _____ to the Lord, the pastor, and the church body.

5. Program

- A. It is best to meet at the _____ time and place each month.
- B. It should be a time of _____, discussion, and encouragement.
- C. Seek to build a _____ among the deacons as you move forward in ministry.

Conclusion: _____
